

Anglia Ruskin University are developing a Post Graduate Medical Centre on their Rivermead Campus in Chelmsford. The building will house 400 and 200 seat lecture theatres, laboratory and research space, seminar and teaching space as well as administration, reception and breakout spaces. The Stage C Report for the Post Graduate Medical Institute was completed in May 2009.

This new building will be positioned in accordance with the Wilkinson Ayre Masterplan for the Chelmsford Campus. The riverside site will be used to best effect to provide views and open social space and provide renewable energy; including heating and cooling by exploiting the potential of the river.

G. Dolden & Associates have been involved from the inception to Stage D of this building as Employers Agent for Anglia Ruskin University.

Project Cost: £8,500,000

Programme: Design and Construction - 24 Months

Completion Date: Fourth Quarter 2010
